A Man of Prayer and Work

Fr. Paul de Vera, OSB shared. He shared his talents and skills from Mangaldan, a town in western Pangasinan. In 1954, he graduated from Santo Tomas College in Manila. He entered the Abbey of Montserrat, Mendiola, Manila.

He studied philosophy both in the Abbey and in San Beda College; and, pursued a Master's degree in Education from the University of the Philippines.

He is a bona fide member of the Philippine Accrediting Association of Schools, Colleges and Universities in the area of library; very much involved with the Mendiola Consortium; taught Library Science subjects at Centro Escolar University from 1974 to 1997.

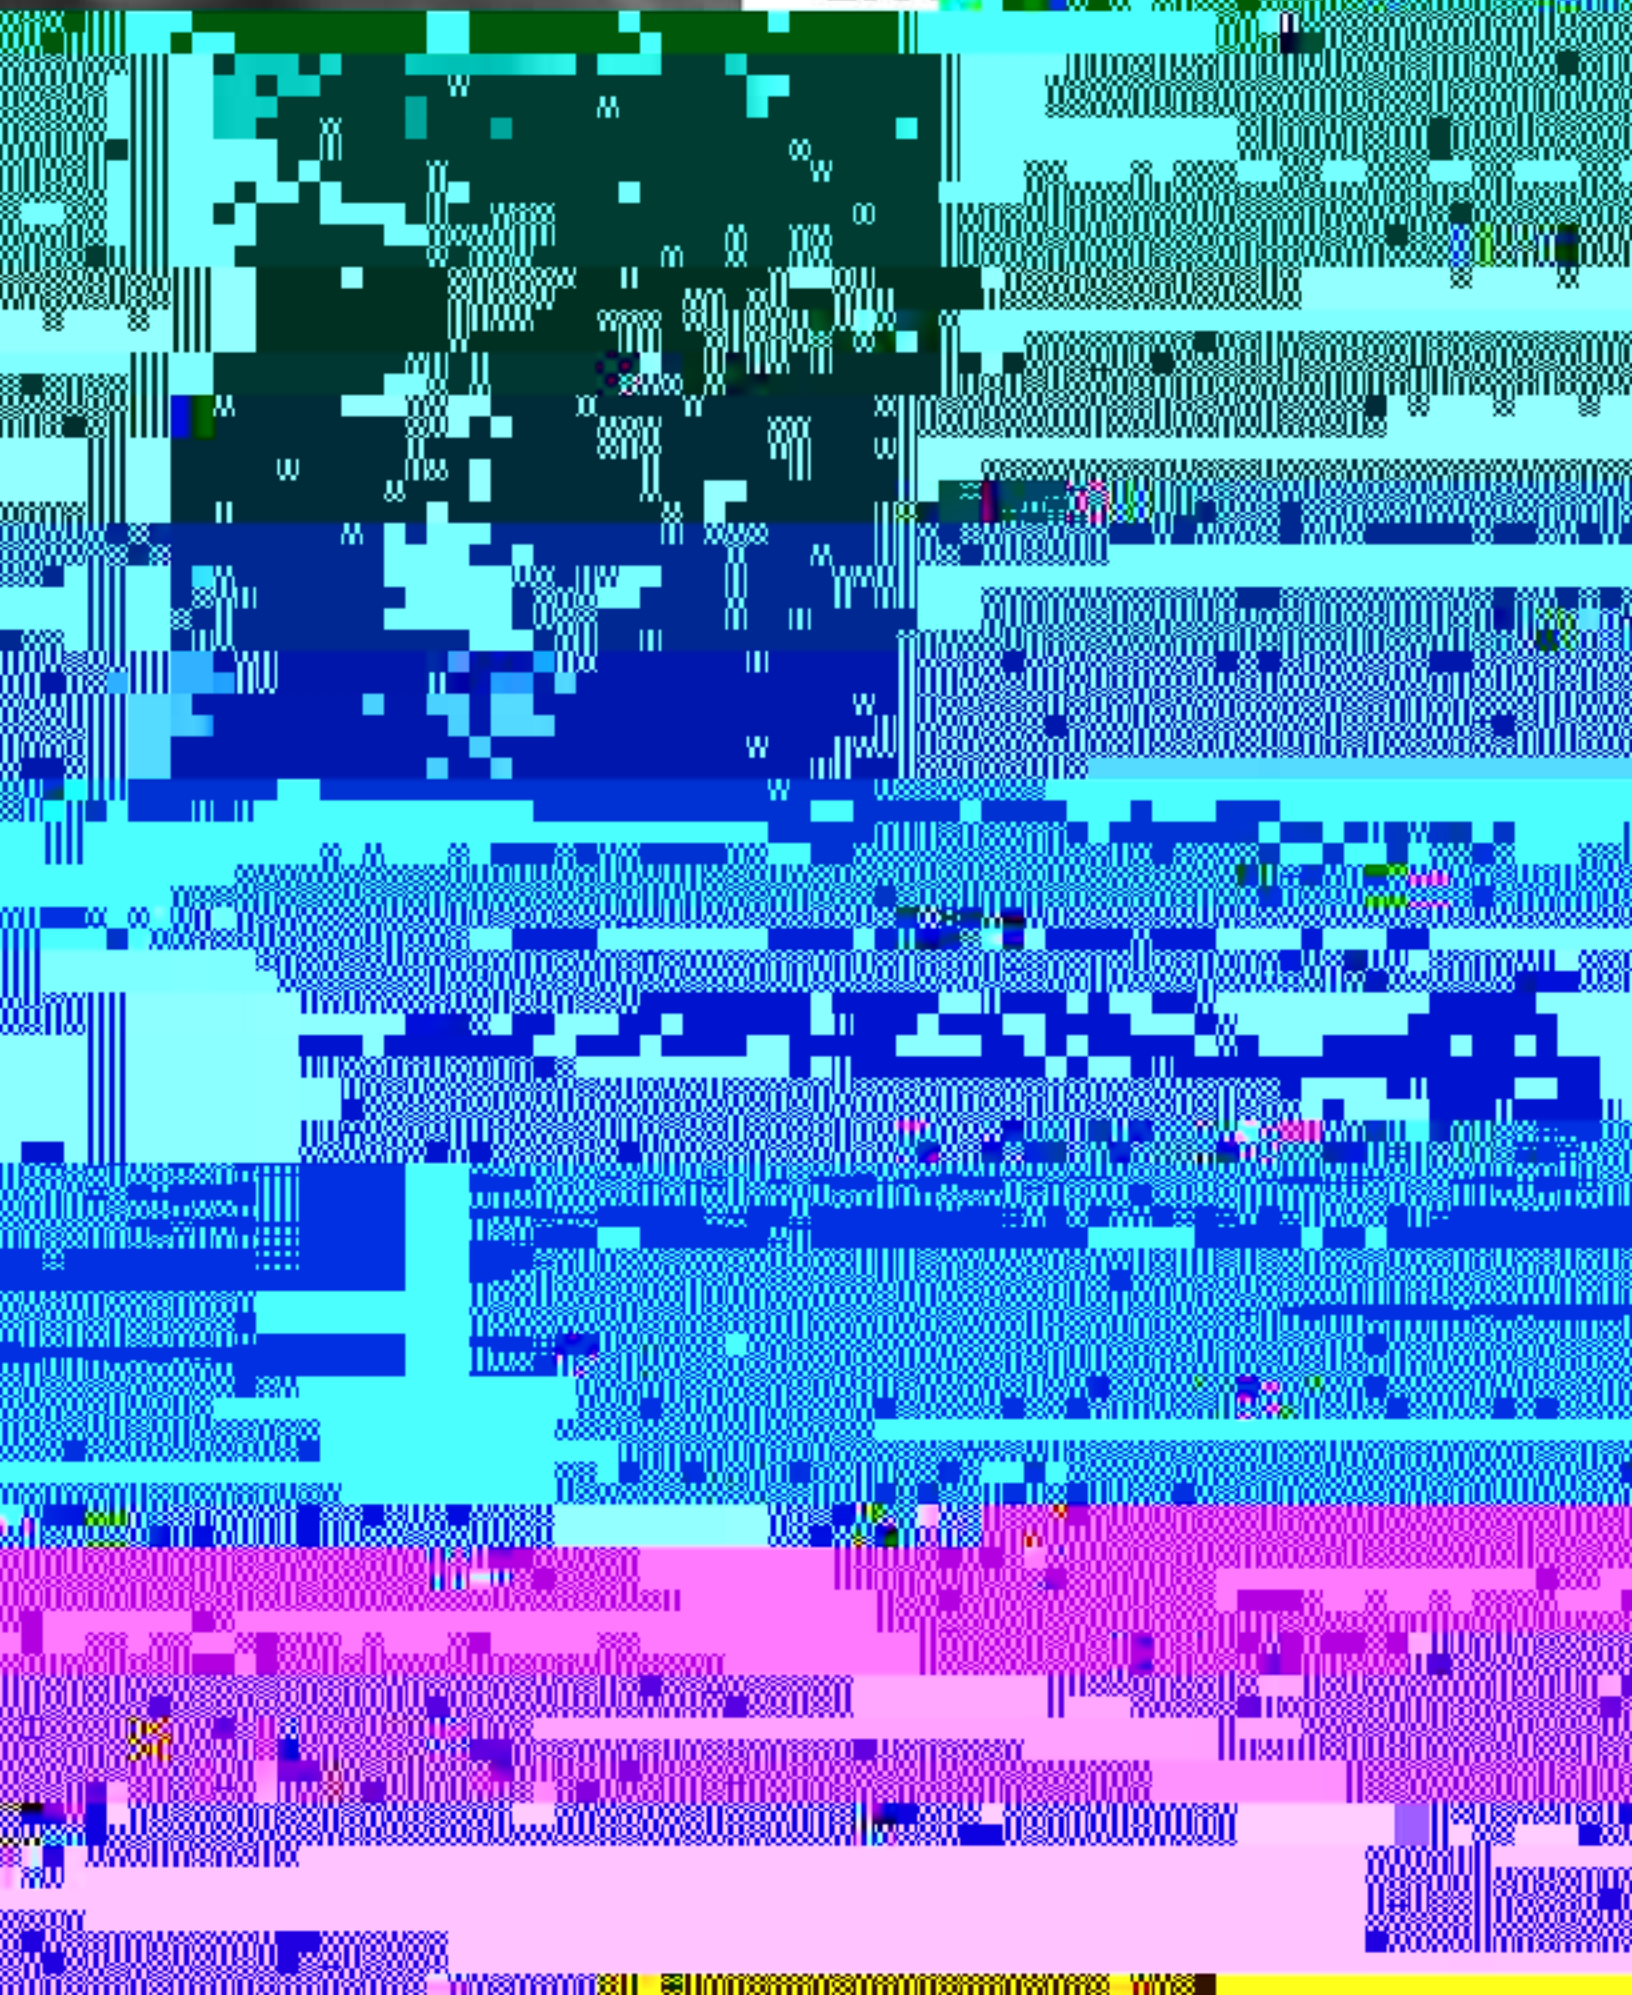

He is currently a member of the National Library and Archives, and is one of the founders and current member of the Philippine Library Association.

He is also a member of the Philippine Library Association and is the "official spiritual father" and consultant on library matters for the Philippine Library Association.

James Sy donates money

to help fund swimming and table tennis teams

AS always, Mr. James Sy and his HS Class '89 can be counted upon when the swimming and table tennis teams of San Bede College are in need of financial help.

Mr. Sy, who is now a resident of the United States, has donated a sum of $27,000 to help fund the swimming and table tennis teams of San Bede College.

The swimming team has been in existence for many years and has a long and successful record. The table tennis team is a newer addition to the college's sports program.

Mr. Sy's donation will help the college purchase equipment and pay for the expenses of the teams. He is a former member of the swimming team and is proud to see the college's sports program flourish.

San Bede College is grateful for Mr. Sy's generous contribution and looks forward to a successful season for both teams.

James Sy is a graduate of San Bede College and is now a resident of the United States. He is a former member of the swimming team and is proud to see the college's sports program flourish.

San Bede College is a Catholic college and is committed to providing a quality education for all students. The college's sports program is an important part of its overall mission.

Mr. Sy's donation is a testament to his love for his alma mater and his commitment to the college's success. We are grateful for his contribution and look forward to a successful season for both teams.

The swimming team is currently in training for the upcoming season. The table tennis team is also in training and will be competing in several tournaments.

San Bede College is proud to have Mr. Sy as a former member and a generous donor. We are grateful for his contribution and look forward to a successful season for both teams.
